

TAKE A CHRISTMAS JOURNEY THROUGH

Prague & Budapest

3-Day Prague & Budapest Christmas Markets Trip
Available in December

DAY 1: PRAGUE CHRISTMAS MARKET

Visit Prague, where the Christmas market takes over Wenceslas and Old Town Squares from the start of December for one month. The centrepiece of a hugely festive scene is a huge, richly-decorated Christmas Tree in the heart of Old Town Square; 2018's was a remarkable 23 metres tall.

Prague Old Town Square

Old Town, Prague 1, Czech Republic

After a wonder around the beautiful Christmas Market, stay at one of our beautiful Prague Hotels located in the city centre.

Visit our Hilton Explore page for more information
explore.hilton.com/easteurope

DAY 2: TRAVEL & BUDAPEST

Travel from Prague to Budapest with a direct Eurail train. Hop on the train at Prague Hlavni Nadrazi Station and head straight to the centre or Budapest.

Check train times and prices on eurail.com

After exploring Budapest's fabulous local food options and reading about its famous history, head to one of our Budapest hotels to rest your head and get ready for the next day.

Visit our Hilton Explore page for more information
explore.hilton.com/easteurope

DAY 3: BUDAPEST CHRISTMAS MARKET

Start your day with a dip in one of Budapest's famous baths or head to the local ice rink to experience the city like a local

Visit our Hilton Explore page for more information
explore.hilton.com/easteurope

In Budapest, locals flock to the annual Christmas market in Vorosmarty Square to dine on goulash to stave off the winter chill. This market is open for almost two months (from the beginning of November through to the new year), offering handmade items in glass, wood and more, plus wonderful gingerbread. It's the perfect place to end a Christmas tour through Eastern Europe.

Vorosmarty Square

Budapest, Vörösmarty tér, 1051 Hungary

